

The Midnight Company's JUST ONE LOOK, which has run for several years and many sold-out performances continues its residency at Blue Strawberry on Thursday, May 21, at 7:30pm. Their April 17 show sold out very quickly, and audiences are urged to book their reservations soon. Tickets are available at BlueStrawberrySTL.com or by calling 314.256.1745.

The show tells the story of Linda Ronstadt, and features her classic hit songs, as delivered by Kelly Howe. Ms. Howe has received voluminous praise for her performance and for her powerful vocals.

Joe Hanrahan, Midnight's Artistic Director, wrote and directed the show, and continues in the role of a veteran British rock journalist, who finally achieves his long sought interview with Ronstadt.

The JUST ONE LOOK band features Curt Landes, piano and musical direction; Mark Rogers, drums and vocals; and Tom Maloney, guitar and bass.

Many audience members have returned several times to the show, bringing friends and families along for the ride. On show nights, The Blue Strawberry opens at 6pm for pre-show dinner and drinks.

The Midnight Company will continue their 2026 season with the St. Louis premiere of WAKEY WAKEY by Will Eno, playing July 16 - August 1 at The Chapel. Tickets for WAKEY WAKEY will go on sale later in the Spring.
