

The Midnight Company will present the premiere of a new cabaret theatre show at The Blue Strawberry in September. PROFESSOR SUNSHINE'S Traveling Post-Apocalyptic ROCK 'N ROLL REVIVAL will be performed Wednesday September 20 7:30pm and Saturday September 23 8:30pm at The Blue Strawberry, 364 N. Boyle, 63108. Tickets, on sale now, are $30 and can be reserved at BlueStrawberrySTL.com or by calling 314.256.1745.

The ROCK 'N ROLL REVIVAL is today's version of Old West traveling shows, when a ragtag theatrical company would sweep into town, bringing some light and entertainment to crumbling, precarious Gold Rush towns. And now, once again, there are hard, hard times, troubled days in the dark, desolate lands we inhabit, where one can at least hope to see the Show coming to town, lifting spirits with rock songs and road stories.

Professor Sunshine (Joe Hanrahan) presents the sultry chanteuse Cheyenne (Kelly Howe), delivering her signature renditions of all the classic, savage rock 'n roll we can remember, pulling together to continue their never-ending tour to the savage horizon ahead.

Guaranteed to deliver you - or at least distract you - from these evil days with a new vision of the salvation music can bring.

Howe and Hanrahan conceived the show, with Hanrahan writing and directing. This same team presented JUST ONE LOOK, the Linda Ronstadt show, at Blue Strawberry with eleven sold-out performances since March, and encore shows coming August 16 and 30. Hanrahan also wrote/directed YOU MADE ME LOVE YOU, the Judy Garland show, at Blue Strawberry, which has an encore show coming September 14.

Hanrahan said "We've been having so much fun presenting these shows at the perfect venue that is Blue Strawberry. In doing so, we may have stumbled upon a distinct new theatrical genre, which we've taken to calling cabaret theatre. In this intimate setting, we're offering great music along with what we feel are compelling stories. Audience reaction has been tremendous, and we look forward to continuing this work."

The House Divided Band for the ROCK 'N ROLL REVIVAL will include Curt Landes, Music Director and piano, Mark Rogers on drums/vocals, and Tom Maloney on guitar. (The same band backed Kelly for JUST ONE LOOK.) Among the songs presented by the Traveling Post-Apocalyptic revival will be favorites by Led Zeppelin, The Beatles, Bob Dylan, Patti Smith and many more.

MidnightCompany.com